Dear Parents/Carers,

Obviously this week has been a busy one for the school with our visit from Ofsted. We have been expecting them for some time, so it was good to have them here and show them how much we have been doing. I obviously cannot go into lots of details before the report comes out. I am very proud of the children, governors and the staff, as always. Thank you to those of you who took time out to fill in the parent survey, check on us and send positive messages – it's very much appreciated.

Then on Thursday, we loved having World Book Day. It was fantastic to be able to celebrate our favourite books, authors, characters and texts. It was lovely to have parents in to share books yesterday morning and this was followed by a very fun collective worship where we had to guess the masked reader and the book they were reading.

Throughout the day we had various live lessons across the school with BBC Teach. In the afternoon, we applied our knowledge of different books we have read to complete reading for pleasure activities and games; such as creating our own story characters or book covers, solving code breakers and word searches and discussions about books with others. It was lovely to be able to buddy up and read with children in other classes.

Books at bedtime was cosy with our range of books, crackling fires, hot chocolate and popcorn, it was enjoyed by all! We had a huge turn-out which is brilliant – thank you.

Have a wonderful weekend.

Mrs Capel.

The next NEU Strike Day is scheduled for the 15th and 16th March. As you know, teachers do not need to advise us in advance of whether or not they are striking.

When we are in a position to share any information, we will of course do so.

Red Nose Day

On Friday the 17th of March, Red Nose Day returns to Pucklechurch. On the day children will be encouraged to wear something red (non-uniform) or a colour they find more comfortable. This can be as small as a pair of socks. During the day the children will take part in a whole school dance-a-thon to mirror Gethin Jones' efforts, in his 24hr fundraising effort. The afternoon will consist of some Red Nose Day themed activities in outdoor learning.

We are asking for £1 donations towards fundraising for Red Nose Day.
